All transactions for the sale of artwork are processed through LOCAL WORKS for the duration of the show. The Commission at the Gallery at WREN is the industry standard rate of 40%, with the Artist earning 60% of the retail selling price. The Artist will be paid within 45 days of the show closing. _____

All works, sold and unsold, will remain on display for the duration of the exhibit. In circumstances where shipping a sold work at the end of the show would result in an unreasonable expense or burden to the Buyer or Gallery, a Buyer may take the work at the point of sale, at the discretion of the Gallery Coordinator. In such cases, the Artist has the option to replace the sold piece with a piece of similar feel and value, for the duration of the show. _____

All the artwork in the exhibit must be for sale. _____

Artist gives permission for the photographic reproduction of work to be used for publicity, outreach and/or educational purposes. _____

The Artists' presence is mandatory at the opening reception, for the duration of the event. _____

Each Artist agrees to bring one item (food or drink) for the reception. The Gallery Committee actively coordinates and hosts the opening and provides napkins, glasses, and a limited variety of platters and serving trays. _____

Artist assumes responsibility for releasing work to WREN and its employees/staff. WREN will make every positive, usual and best practice effort to prevent any damage, loss or infringement upon the artwork while it is at WREN. The Gallery at WREN cannot hold responsibility in the unlikely event that any damage that may occur, and members are encouraged to obtain their own rider insurance policy if they feel it necessary. _____

I affirm that I have read and understand these terms and the spirit of this agreement. In so doing, I agree to participate as designated above and authorize The Gallery at WREN to go forward with the show arrangements and promotion.
